- CALL TO ORDER President Joe Gorman called the meeting to order at 9 a.m. at Jim Golan's house.
- TREASURER Dick reported: Balance Aug. 2009 $4,001.04
- COMMITTEES
- Membership Nancy – no report.
- Green David is trying to increase the recycling percentages of residents. Rain garden behind Finneytown High School is doing great.
- Housing Jim and Chris are satisfied about the progress of the housing monitoring project. Still seeking some volunteers to cover western areas. Jim will provide an article for the newsletter.
- Land Use Zoning Bill said that Valvoline's request to expand driveway was approved.
- Township Liaison Robin is impressed with the Township neighborhood picnics. Winton Road construction will probably be done next Spring. Hempstead parking issue (small houses with several cars) keeps percolating. Residents voted down expansion of the street, but many are still parking on the lawns.
- Public Relations (a.) Joe will edit the newsletter for Monday printing and mailing. Articles include Township Open House, green bits, Candidate's Night, Housing monitoring. (b.) Joe will print up FCA Name Badges (Chris has sleeves) for board members to wear during Open House event. Joe will see if FCA can add brochures and newsletters to the gift bags to be given out that day. (c.) Approval for Joe to submit ads to Finneytown Music Parents newsletter and Township Magazine publication.
- NEW BUSINESS Jeff is working with Township police to move the crosswalk at Winton and Timber Trail to Whitaker School. FCA will write support letter if needed.
- SEPT. 20 MEETING Topics include: schools update (levy, test scores) and Open House review.
- Announcements Sept. 20 Springfield Township Open House.
- Candidate's Night – Sunday, October 18 at 7 p.m. Chris will talk with Sue Hummer about format. Three Township trustees and four FLS board members are running.
- Next Board Meeting It was agreed that board meetings should be held on Saturdays instead of Sundays. Next meetings: SATURDAY, October 10 at 9 .m. at Bill's house (929 Timber Trail) and, SATURDAY, November 14 at 9 a.m. at Robin's house (6341 Ridgefield).
