GOOD ROADS ARE A KEY TO A HEALTHY HOME

JOSEPH GORMAN • PRESIDENT

Every day, I drive (or walk) the roads of Finneytown. Each morning I drive south on Winton until it ends at Spring Grove Avenue. Each night, I use it for three more trips. Yes, the re-construction of Winton south of N. Bend Road is a welcome thing, but it just seems to take forever to complete. (November is the target date.)

In the mean time, my car is definitely taking a beating from driving on bumpy, pock-mocked streets. I hate driving the back streets between Winton, E. Compton, Long Lane, and Reynard. Big trees, cool foliage, interesting and well-kept single family homes, and nice neighbors all connected by deteriorated streets. It just isn't fun to drive these streets, and it really takes away a lot of the charm of Finneytown.

Why do we tolerate crappy roads? We can blame State and Township budget cuts. We can blame the Mike Brown for using taxpayer's funds for stadium repairs or new scoreboards. But, really, why do property owners allow bad roads to get even worse?
